Wednesday Night Alive Expectations

To create a safe, caring Christian faith community, we invite all participants to uphold these expectations:

Check in and wear your nametag

- All participants must check in at the kiosk, print a nametag, and wear it visibly above the waist.
- Guests provide contact information and handwrite a nametag.

Remain in the building

- After checking in, children/youth through grade 8 cannot leave the Youth and Sports Center until scheduled programming begins (such as Confirmation or a children's choir) or picked up by a parent/guardian.
- High school youth (grades 9-12) may leave and return.
- Children/youth can only be in the Sanctuary and Great Hall within 15 minutes before or after scheduled programming unless accompanied by a parent/guardian or staff member.
- Children/youth are not allowed in wooded areas on campus except for traveling to or from programming.

Place trash and recycling in proper containers

- Participants are responsible for keeping areas clean and tidy.
- St. Andrew's practice is to compost or recycle when possible.

Treat others with dignity and Christ-like love

- St. Andrew's desires to be a place that is safe and caring for all.
- Everyone should be treated with dignity and respect, including no physical or verbal harm to others.
- Possession of weapons or dangerous items is not allowed.
- Refrain from inappropriate physical activity, including intimate physical contact.
- Any issues or concerns can be reported to any staff member.

Respect property

- Church facilities, property, and equipment are to be treated with respect.
- Children/youth may be responsible for damages or item replacement.
